

Global Events, One Platform

From fragmented systems to a scalable, personalized digital ecosystem: How K&C helped KNect365 scale with cloud, AI, and automation.

About KNect 365

KNect365 (Informa Connect), a division of the global events leader Informa, organizes thousands of in-person and online events annually across 70+ countries. With millions of participants worldwide, the company needed a digital infrastructure capable of supporting a truly global, multi-format events and content business.

AWS, Amazon
Cognito & more

Challenge

- Unify all KNect365 events under a single, cloud-based e-commerce and content platform.
- Support multiple event brands in a multi-tenant white-label environment.
- Integrate and automate marketing processes based on Big Data and AI-driven user profiling.
- Relocate the full infrastructure to AWS and implement secure, scalable authentication via Amazon Cognito.
- Deliver an enterprise-grade platform that meets the demands of millions of global users.

Solution

- K&C delivered end-to-end development of an enterprise platform
- Unified Marketplace: Multi-tenant, white-label architecture powering Informa's entire event portfolio, with custom storefronts for each brand.
- Cloud Migration: Moved to AWS for scalability and performance and secure identity control.
- Marketing Automation: Integrated external portals to aggregate anonymized user data, enabling AI-driven, personalized marketing.
- Extensive Integrations: Connected third-party systems and event portals for seamless data flow and operational consistency.

Success Story

What began as a digital unification initiative evolved into a powerful enterprise ecosystem supporting events, content, and marketing automation for millions of users. K&C successfully delivered a secure, cloud-native, AI-enhanced platform that personalizes user journeys at scale—across thousands of events and brands.

The impact? A significant increase in sales, engagement, and operational efficiency, with KNect365 now well-positioned to drive future growth across digital and physical channels alike.

Why K&C?

Enterprise Experience: Deep experience delivering complex, distributed systems for large-scale clients.

Full-Stack Expertise: From strategy and UI/UX to architecture, development, and DevOps—K&C handled it all.

Scalable Delivery Model: Agile project delivery that evolved as KNect365's vision expanded.
